

POSITION OPENING: Sunday School Teacher

The Episcopal Church of the Ascension, located in the Magnolia neighborhood in Seattle, Washington is seeking a Sunday School Teacher (3-4 hours per week, September-June) who under general supervision, will teach children's lesson plan using Illustrated Ministries.

Purpose: Responsible for the development of Sunday's scriptural teaching to elementary aged children and support of parent/s, under the general direction of the rector.

DUTIES

- Administer the Illustrated Ministries Sunday lesson for K-5th grade children on Sundays from 10:15-10:45am
- Family Support: assist in incorporating new children and their families into the life of the parish
- Seasonal program: provide support for the Christmas Pageant (Sunday, Dec. 11)
- Oversee the Sunday School budget: manage program expenses within the budget, maintain and complete financial records of educational supplies
- Communication: develop information to parents, children and parish with support of Ascension's Communication Director.
- Other: complete SAFE Certification, attend monthly staff meeting (1st Mondays of the month from 1-1:30pm) and consider participating in other family ministry events

QUALIFICATION:

The ideal candidate will be pursuing a teaching certification, demonstrate a proactive approach in their work, love children, be able to solve problems independently, and have experience teaching children.

TIME COMMITMENT:

- Approx. 4 hours per week (Sept-June)/ 40 Sundays a year with 3 chosen holiday Sundays, making up 160 hours per year
- Prep work can be done from home, with on-site needed only on Sunday mornings

COMPENSATION: $8,000